DCI/MAG IN-HOUSE SPEAKER'S PROGRAM

The Director's Management Advisory Group (DCI/MAG) with the cooperation of the Office of Training (OTR) will inaugurate an In-House Guest Speaker Program designed to help improve management-employee communications on subjects of interest to the Agency as a whole. Recognizing that problems of communication are endemic to any large organization, the DCI/MAG programs will attempt to give senior management and Agency employees an opportunity to meet face to face to share information and to discuss problems of current mutual concern.

The one-hour programs will be presented in the Auditorium on an open-house, first come, first seated basis. The format will be a lecture presentation by the guest speaker, followed by questions from the audience.

Mr. Robert Gambino, Director of Security, has accepted an invitation to be our first guest speaker on Friday, 9 March at 3:00 PM in the Auditorium. Mr. Gambino has agreed to discuss a wide range of security issues such as:

- Recent Espionage Cases (Kampiles, Boyce/Lee, Moore)
- Repolygraph/Reinvestigation Program
- Unauthorized Disclosure/Mishandling of Classified Information
- Package/Purse Inspection Program
- Changing Times/Attitudes towards Security

STAT

If employees have other topics they would like Mr. Gambino to address, they can phone one of the DCI/MAG members listed below, or raise the topic directly during the question/answer period. However, it is requested that in consideration of fellow employees, participants refrain from raising specific personal problems or grievances.

The DCI/MAG (which consists of three representatives from each directorate of the Agency) would also welcome employee response to the program and suggestions of future topics of general interest. Again, any suggestions or feedback can be made in writing to the DCI/MAG (Executive Registry, 7E12 Headquarters) or by contacting any of the MAG members listed below.
